Vote Is Assured On Incorporation As Petition Filled

It was announced today that the incorporation committee has received enough signed petitions to bring incorporation to a vote.

The elated committee chairman, F. H. Hodder, stated that the hard work of the committee had paid off and at long last the citizens of this community would be given the opportunity to cast a vote for the form of local government that would best serve our community.

Recognizing the long and continued efforts of many local citizens who have devoted much time and effort to the campaign to offer the people "the privilege of the ballot," the chairman expressed his sincere thanks to everyone who participated.

Verification of the petitions will now be presented to the county clerk ,after being approved by the county assessor and the clerk, the latter will in turn, present the petition to the board of supervisors. The board will consider the request and it is hoped that they will set the date for election in the near future.

Between now and the time of election, a new committee will be operating in an attempt to bring to light the true effect of incorporation upon this community. The committee is to be called FACT, First Advisory Committee of Truckee, and citizens who would assist in helping to bring accurate facts to the community are urged to contact Fred Hodder at 587-3804. It is hoped that the FACT committee will be able to provide objective and accurate information so that the citizens of this community will be fully informed, and thereby able to make the best possible decision by the time of election.

Tapia said he was giving up his practice to devote full time to the new position. He has resigned as member of the Truckee-Donner board of directors and Charles Spillner was named to succeed him as chairman. However, Tapia said he would retain his position as chairman of the Nevada County Recreation Commission of which he has been a member and chairman since its inception.

The vacancy created on the local board by the resignation will be filled after the election November 8. Dr. Tapia's term has two more years to run.

The selection of Dr. Tapia as superintendent was unanimous by the board.

In accepting the post as superintendent, Dr. Tapia said that he plans to continue with the present recreational program; but hopes to augment this by getting back to the original intent of the district when it was organized — that of stressing park and recreational facilities for the entire district.

The one-year contract, calling for a salary of $700 a month, starts October 1, but Dr. Tapia said he was closing his chiropractic office next week to prepare to enter upon his new duties. The district office will be retained in the Tahoe-Truckee Agency in Gateway.

Donner Home Fire Wednesday Night

The home, owned by Sheats and McCue of Yuba City was occupied by workmen on the new sewer line. A faulty fireplace was blamed for the fire which gutted much of the interior.

The two units of the newly formed fire department responded and prevented the spread of the flames and quickly had the fire under control. Former Fire Chief Sky Miles was momentarily overcome by smoke but was revived by oxygen supplied by Jack deRyk of the Truckee Ambulance Service.

Area Shocked As Violent Quake Is Cause Of Damage

Things in Truckee and the surrounding area were real shaky Monday when a rather violent earthquake struck at 9:45 a.m., followed by a series of aftershakes which continued throughout the day and into Thursday.

Fortunately no one was injured although there was considerable property damage reported from numerous locations.

First reactions were naturally of fear, but as word spread, it was revealed that all damage was of a material nature and while nerves remained on edge, the situation became more of a topic of humorous conversation and sharing experiences than of fear and hysteria.

Probably the most serious damage was done to Sierra Pacific Power Company installations. A huge boulder, weighing several tons, was dislodged from the hill above the Farad power plant east of here, crashed down the hill, literally bounced over the four-lane freeway and through the brick wall of the plant, barely missing the huge generators before coming to rest. Frank Giovannoni, local company superintendent, said it's probable that the boulder may have to be broken up to remove it.

Fire District Commissioner N. F. Dolley today issued a warning to all home owners to make a careful check of fire places, flues and chimneys which may have been damaged by the Monday earthquake. Gas lines and water lines also should be checked for possible damage, he added.

A cracked chimney or fireplace could easily result in a home fire, the commissioner pointed out.

The power company's flume between Floriston and Farad was broken in three places by rolling stones and the main line over the hill above there was broken.

HOME DAMAGED

The quake apparently centered somewhere in the vicinity of Boca or Farad. The home of Mr. and Mrs. Ron Kirby, caretakers at the Boca reservoir, was virtually destroyed when it was lifted off the foundation and literally crashed to earth.

Several baby chinchilla being reared by the family drowned when water lines broke and one of the adult animals was crushed under the collapsing house.

Kirby said that he saw trees on the hillside nearly horizontal as the earth swayed, and then right themselves. Scores of rocks and earth tumbled down the hillsides from all directions.

ROADS, RAILWAY CLOSED

Immediately following the initial quake, the Southern Pacific stopped all trains through the area while bounders and debris were removed from the tracks. Tracks were not damaged.

The division of highways stopped heavy traffic over Interstate 80 while engineers checked over the bridges and maintenance crews cleared rocks off the highway.

A crack appeared in the road across Prosser dam and similar cracks were reported at Boca although it was believed no great damage was caused.

WATER TANKS OPENED

Francis Longo, manager of the Truckee Public Utility District, reported that redwood tanks at the McGlashan Springs, the South Side facility and Schaeffer Springs sprung small leaks which were quickly repaired. As a result of the earth disturbance, the water was

BE CAREFUL WITH FIRE

Mrs. Ruth E. Corl, a clerk in the California Highway Patrol, is using the new power operated filing system just installed at the Patrol's headquarters in Sacramento. The operator can cause any of the shelves containing the records to appear in the opening shown. Two of these machines will eventually hold all active personnel records of the CHP after they are placed on microfilm. The CHP is the first state department to install these key units in the modernization of the filing system.

Power Driven Files Now Being Used With Success By California Highway Patrol

The California Highway Patrol is the fist state department to install power driven files for its personnel records as part of the modernization of the filing system, according to Bradford M. Crittenden, Commissioner of the Patrol.

The new filing "cabinet" is 6 feet long, 10 feet high, and 3 feet thick. Within it are 16 revolving shelvevs containing personnel files. The operator sits in front of an opening the size of one shelf and by pushing the proper button can cause any of the 16 shelves to appear in the opening.

"There will eventually be two of these powered files and when fully installed the system will be able to store the active personnel records of the entire patrol including those added because of planned expansion. This amounts to about 8000 people," Crittenden said.

"The file is the key unit of the system which also includes a machine to microfilm records and a microfilm viewer."

Besides the obvious saving in space required for records, there is another benefit. Instead of using time and effort walking long aisles to reach the record wanted, the clerks can remain seated while the file comes to them.

"The system is not limited to personnel records, it will eventually be expanded throughout the CHP," Crittenden concluded.

AFFAIRS OF STATE

by Henry C. MacArthur

SACRAMENTO — (CNS) — California voters on November 8 will be called upon to open balloting to illiterates, as the result of submission of Proposition 15, an assembly constitutional amendment providing that the educational requirements to vote in this state may be avoided in certain cases.

Specifically the measure provides this eligibility shall not apply to a person who on June 27, 1952,was at least 50 years of age, and a resident of the United States at least 20 years.

Among other things, the constitution now contains educational qualifications to the effect that a person who cannot read the constitution in the English language and cannot write his or her own name, shall not be allowed to vote.

It also provides this section does not apply to persons who had the right to vote on October 11, 1911 and were 60 years of age or over at that time.

Few pepople who were sixty years old in October, 1911, are still around at the present time. In fact it would be difficult to find any who are over 100 years old.

The proposed change in the constitution would affect only about 10,000 persons, all of them naturalized citizens, a mere drop in the bucket as far as total voters are concerned.

Thus, the amendment is merely an attempt to secure a small segment of votes from foreign-born citizens, who have become naturalized through use of their own language, instead of the English language.

The amendment is supported by Assemblyman Alfred H. Son, representative from the 45th district in Southern California, and Assemblyman Philip L. Soto, from the 50th district. They claim this small segment of foreign born citizens could "most certainly vote as intelligent and concerned citizens."

On the other hand, Senator Jack Schrade, San Diego, and Assemblyman Charles J. Conrad, Los Angeles, both Republicans, point out the proposition would allow unqualified voters to cast ballots in California.

Although the proposition must be relegated to the field of minutia in view of the highly important issues before the people at the forthcoming electiton, it still must be considered because it is on the ballot,

This week the Past was so present that Time stopped and no thought was given for a couple of hours anyway to the week's activities. We were transported back to the San Ramon Valley when we learned that J. Charles and Paula Turner of Danville and Bailey and Marie Justice of Alamo were vacationing at the Turners' Crystal Shores town house. Neighbors and long-time friends, we caught up on that area which, too, is growing fast.

When we all moved into that then small village, newcomers were decidedly unwelcome. Only after careful surveilance of ones credentials was one accepted into the community and its activities. This probably seems strange to a new community such as Incline Village where newcomers are given the red carpet treatment and welcomed as residents. It made for a nostalgic afternoon for Bethel, who is planning on vacationing at Diablo in the near future amid the same atmosphere—only this time dinners, luncheons and teas will attest that she is an old timer!

Also visiting from the bay area to their Incline home are C. R. "Russ" and Jane Graff and family. Jane made the trip via heliocopter, plane and car to Tahoe, having recently undergone back surgery.

'Tis said everyone comes to Tahoe and with the aforementioned we learn that King Parker and Ted Beem, both Walnut Creek residents, are frequent Incline Village residents.

Reminiscing is fun but in reality we are happy to be where we are.

Virginia Barker, daughter of Fred and Rose Barker of Tahoe Vista, has just been appointed department manager of gifts, lamps, pictures, china and silver for the new Breuner's store at San Carlos which will open about October 1. Virginia will have 12 sales girls in her department and an office staff as well. She has moved to San Carlos from Oakland to be ready for the grand opening.

Her parents are beaming, of course, but so is Madolin Moseley of Tahoe Vista, for whom Virginia worked for several years learning the business and receiving the knowledge that has made her present success possible.

Louise Anderson of Tahoe Vista was hostess to the WSCS of the Kings Beach Methodist Church at her home on Wednesday. A business meeting followed a marvelous pot luck luncheon. Among those present were Eda Judy, Vera Mosier, Louise Walters, Laura Wilson, Sue Dwyer, Helene Hawkins, Pearl Draney, Ruth Mizner, Fran Thompkins, Noreen Marx and the hostess.

Due to the acceptance of a position in Tahoe City, Virginia Murphy resigned as president of the WSCS for the remainder of the term. Pearl Draney of Incline Beach will finish out the year as president of the group.

Christopher Haymann, son of Col. A. A. and Frances Haymann of Incline Village, returned last weekend to San Rafael where he attends the 3 R's School.

Hap and Dorill Haymann and children, Pat and Barbara, of Novato spent Labor Day weekend with his parent, Col. A. A. and Frances Haymann.

Enjoying Labor Day weekend at the Tahoe Vista home of Dan and Louise Anderson was their daughter, Pat Thompson, and guest, Harry Wood of Hayward. Pat's daughters, Susan Walsh and Sandy, with husband, Bob Schneider, accompanied them to Tahoe to visit their grandparents.

Also visiting the Andersons from Oceanside were Jimmy, Becky, Cindy and Kenny Anderson, who spent the month of August vacationing with their grandparents. Their mother, Milly, and husband, Dee Derosby, came up for the weekend and returned the children home in time for school.

Sounds like old times at Sandy Beach. Louise Anderson was assisting there, which she hadn't done for several years. Everyone was happy to see her, if only for a few days.

Happy birthday to Virginia Neville of Incline Village and Reno who observed her special day September 1. Husband, Richard, and Press and Helen O'Hara of Reno enjoyed a barbecue with the Nevilles and the next evening celebrated with dinner and show at the Sparks Nugget, to see Al Hirt.

Richard and Virginia Neville of Reno and Incline Village spent last week at the San Francisco Hilton. They went down to attend market week.

Betty Scoglund, better known to viewers of KOLO Channel 8 as Betty of Be My Guest, Virginia Neville and Bethel Van Tassel enjoyed luncheon and a fashion show at Vario's in Reno on Friday.

Ron and Peggy Gott and son, Robbie, of Sparks and Incline Village spent Labobr Day with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. Gott of San Francisco at the Gott summer home at Auburn.

Dr. and Mrs. Joseph Furlong of Incline Village have had a happy, busy two weeks. Dr. Furlong's brother, Rev. Francis P. Furlong, S.J., of Rome, Italy, spent two weeks vacation from his duties with them. Father Furlong is president of Bellarmino College in Rome—a Jesuit school—where he has been for the past nine years.

Other recent guests of the Furlongs were Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Leahey and Dr. and Mrs. Charles Steiss of San Francisco, Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Williams of Chicago and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Steel of Palm Desert.

Rev. Earl and Mary Lou Langguth and son, Robbie, were recent visitors to Ray and Joy Plunkett at Incline Village and Red and Mary Lou Waddell at Kings Beach. The Langguths are former residents of Kings Beach and visited other friends while at Tahoe.

Mrs. A. Glunt and daughter, former Kings Beach residents, now residing in Florida, were the house guests of Eda Judy at Kings Beach for several days.

The 9th Lefty Righty (and that is right because Jimmie Hume said so) tournament was once again sponsored by the North Shore Club. This golf tournament started as a Western States Left Hand competition but because of lack of lefts the affair was also righted. Awards were made at a gourmet dinner Sunday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill McMurtrey of El Toro were recent house guests of Jack and Velda Farris at Incline Village.

Two forest fires in the area were blamed on careless hunters, one in Martis Valley and the other near Donner Summit.

NEW HOMEWOOD P.O. TO DOUBLE SPACE; BIDS BEING SOUGHT

HOMEWOOD— The post office department is seeking competitive bids to build and rent the new post office at Homewood, Lake Tahoe, Postmaster General Lawrence F. O'Brien announced this week.

"This proposed new 1500 square foot building," the postmaster general said, "will replace the existing 769 square feet postal quarters at Homewood."

The desired area for the new building is in the vicinity of the present building. The department's capital investment will be limited substantially to postal equipment. The building will remain under private ownership with the owner paying local real estate taxes.

Bidding documents are available and may obtained from Richard A. King, regional real estate officer, P. O. Box 1527, Sacramento, California 95807, who will supply bidding forms, building specifications and other information. Bids must be submitted to real estate officer by October 10.

Gary Marshal Wins Acclaim With Show

CRYSTAL BAY — Amid a galaxy of spectacular showgirls, handsome Gary Marshal continues to win devotees of his dynamic singing style, as "Vive Les Girls" moves into its 15th week at North Lake Tahoe's Nevada Lodge.

While the keynote of the Parisian adult-only extravaganza is undeniably girls in all their exciting splendor, Gary Marshall leaves his imprint firmly on the production, and in the minds of enthusiastic audiences. Compared by some columnists to Robert Goulet, Gary is an English-born singer-actor who in recent months has effectively impressed the American entertainment world.

His summer-long engagement with "Vive Les Girls" puts him before the American public in the manner he prefers: backed by a large orchestra with arrangements of Broadway showtunes, standard favorites, and the best of contemporary hits — all of which Gary handles with a talent that ranks him high among today's singers.

Gary's two RCA Victor album releases have been widely aired in metropolitan areas, and record sales have been remarkably brisk. He has also been exposed to the American public on NBC Television's "Tonight" show, and Art Linkletter's "Talent Scouts" show.

Gary will also be making his first American motion picture in the near future, in a role designed to fully exploit his proved talent for singing and acting.

"Vive Les Girls" is a colorful "no cameras" production, spotlighting some of the most stunning beauties ever to walk an American stage. From Europe, Asia and the United States, producer Fredric Apcar has brought to Nevada Lodge his finest production ever.

The continental revue closes at Nevada Lodge on October 1. Through that date it is staged nightly with spectacular effect in the Nevada Lodge Topaz Room. Also featured at Nevada Lodge is continuous lounge entertainment from dusk 'til dawn: now appearing are the Cousins, nationally popular musical group of unusual song stylings and wit.

He was with the department in Modesto at the time of his death.

DONNER DOINGS

By Mrs. Carson "Vi" White

Fourteen boats were entered in the races Saturday, but only eleven actually started. The winds were strong and the waves high and only nine finished the first race.

Tony Lavalsiti of Sacramento broke a tiller just as he and his crew were about to cross the start line, Dr. Jake Read from Elko, Nevada had a problem with the winds and turned turtle over at China Cove, Fred Hodder lost his sails when the mast went down, but those who weathered the elements came in wet and happy.

The two races on Saturday had the same course, from Cottage Pines Resort, down to the white guard rail at Greenpoint, across the lake to Corum's, a long run east for bouy No. 4 near the park, then back to the start-finish line.

Sunday's race was cancelled because of high winds and ocean like waves. Both Howard Mehl and Agee Kading lost their sails and masts just trying to get from the west end to the start line.

Race judge Sky Miles was kept busy towing in disabled boats.

Howard Mehl of Roseville received 200 points after the two races Saturday and won the Corum family trophy.

Lloyd Pratt also of Roseville was second with 181 points and received a gag trophy called a "thing-a-ma-jig" designed by Commodore Ed Corum.

Agee Kading of Chico had 180 points, receiving the Howard Mehl plaque.

The Truckee-Donner Chamber of Commerce trophy was won by Tony Lavalsiti of Sacramento chalking up the most points for a skipper outside of the Donner Lake Sailing Club.

Thirty-six attended the dinner at Donner Lake Lodge Saturday evening.

Ever hear such squealing pigs as those three frightened ones being greased for the chase at the Swim Pool Fair Sunday? Those who managed to grab hold of them were rewarded with piggy banks and some mighty dirty clothes!

There was a good turnout in spite of the cold and windy day, the kids really had a swell time, and so did the oldsters. Kids were all smiles when they got to ride the fire engine, throw balls at milk bottles, and darts at the balloons, etc.

Clowns Hazel Beck and Bob Zirbel were terrific and kept the crowd in stitches, especially when Hazel climbed the rope as it went over the mud puddle during the tug-o-war.

The fair was a great success and certainly showed that the community is behind the swim pool project.

Congrats to Kitty Money and Betty Dearman and their hard working staff.

Marilyn Danner spent part of the summer here at her folks cabin before her appointment as Plant Pathologist in the Crops Research Division of the Cheyenne Horticultural Field Station in Wyoming. This gal really knows her plants and has an excellent list of wildflowers from our area.

The George Crookshank's helped Hazel Hall celebrate her birthday last week by having a party at their house. They also attended the Fish-arama at the Holiday in Reno. Yum! Many happy returns Hazel.

Understand that Nevada County received several ribbons at the California State Fair in Sacramento.

and votes will be required to pass or kill the unimportant change in the constitution.

What some people do not understand is that the privilege of voting carries with it the responsibilities of citizenship. While it may be true that some of the non-English reading foreign citizens may know a lot more about the constitution than the ordinary native-born citizen, still this cannot be used as a lever to lower the literacy requirements in the constitution.

CARD OF THANKS

To the friends and acquaintances of Nick, Susan, and Pamela Van Sant:

The story of your extraordinary kindness and generosity during Joan's illness and passing has come halfway across the country to us. We have been made aware that you, who had known them only a brief four years, were undergirding Nick and the girls in their trouble, as we would like to have done had we been nearer. Yet we could nevevr have equalled the volume of your gifts and good works, even if we had lived in the next block. It is reassuring to know how heroically people will behave in such an emergency. Our entire family is most grateful.

Sincerely,

will place each within his own class. The Nevada Sports Touring Association will be technical hosts and will be in charge of the entrants, timing and other technical aspects of the race. A timing device from the University of Nevada will assure accurate recordings of time.

The event is expected to attract large crowds as the course is easily accessible to spectators and is near hotels, motels and eating places including Truckee, Soda Springs, Donner Lake and Norden. The course is well paved and will be groomed for the races. Hodder and Leo Lucchesi made a thorough inspection of the course following the earthquake Monday to be assured it was not damaged by earth or rock slides.

A barbecue for drivers and crews as well as the public will be sponsored by E Clampus Vitus on Saturday evening and the Lions Club will host a pancake breakfast starting at 5 p.m. and concluding at 9 a.m.

Refreshments will be available from service stands set up on the hill throughout the races.

Cars will start racing at 7:30 a.m. each day and two cars will be on the course at one time. Based on speed runs for the press, the cars will average about 85 miles an hour overall and it is anticipated that on several stretches, the vehicle will reach 110 miles an hour.

Admission through the check points will be $1.

Dianne Silverii Is Married To Dale Houston At Rites

A double ring, two o'clock ceremony, performed September 3 by Rev. Bob Duffer in the Masonic Temple of Truckee, united in marriage Dianne Elizabeth Silverii and Dale Allen Houston.

The bride, who was escorted to the altar by her father, Carmen Silverii, wore a formal gown of imported Italian silk peau de soie, complemented by the cathedral length train. Seed pearls were arranged on the gown, made with fitted bodice and tapered sleeves. The elbow length veil was supported by a pillbox crown accented with sequins and pearls on lace.

A white Bible given to her upon her entrance into the International Order of Rainbow for Girls, with white roses and streamers was carried. The maid of honor, Karen Silverii wore an ensemble of pink peau de soie satin, floor length, the headpiece was a pillbox trimmed with a light pink veil, she also carried a white Bible with a spray of pink roses.

The bride's maids, Ginger Houston, Carolyn Maish and Dana Tolle chose identical gowns and bouquets.

Steve Silacci was best man and Steve Silverii, Robert Silacci, Robert Tolle were ushers.

Candle lighters were Lonnie and Allana Campbell, the temple was decorated with baskets of varigated pink roses for the service. Wayne Philippi was the organist and the soloist was Joan England.

Mr. and Mrs. Houston greeted guests at a reception in the banquet room with Evelyn McQuary, Shirley Gini, Mary Lou Dorsett, Ann Palazzo and Mary Silverii serving at the bride's table.

Mr. and Mrs. Carmen Silverii of Truckee are the bride's parents and she is a graduate of Tahoe Truckee High School and attended Sierra College. She is a past worthy advisor of Order of Rainbow for Girls and past grand representative of the order to Oregon last year.

Mr. and Mrs. Allen G. Houston of Concord are the new benedict's parents. He attended school in his home location, later Sierra College and they will live at Arcata while he continues his education in forestry at Humboldt State College.

Out of town guests attending the rites included Messrs. and Mesdames Frank Silverii of west Covina, Skip Palazzo of La Mirada, C. O. Dorsett, Harbor City, R. L. Campbell of Napa, Sid Kvam of Santa Rosa, California.

Earthquake

clouded for a time, but has completely cleared again.

There was one broken water main on West River Street, which also has been repaired, Longo reported.

STORES DAMAGED

Throughout Truckee, cracks developed in many buildings, especially the Capitol Cafe, the Odd Fellows hall and other stone and brick structures. Only two windows were broken, one at the self-operated laundromat operated by B. W. Reynolds and the other at Welch's Hardware. However, windows through the area were shaken, plastered walls cracked and merchandise strewn in stores.

Several stores were closed during the shakeup as merchants were forced to sweep up broken bottles and jars which fell from shelves.

A number of brick chimneys fell or were broken by the sharp shake.

SCHOOL RECESSED

Windows at the Tahoe Truckee High School were broken and classes were dismissed for the day while engineers checked over the building to make sure it was not materially damaged.

The quake was felt over a wide area from San Francisco into western Nevada. Minor incidents occurred in Reno, Incline Village and other nearby communities. Floriston reported broken chimneys, scattered groceries, broken dishes and similar disturbances.

Two small cracks were reported in the dam at Tahoe City and a 8-foot crack appeared in the wall of the Carnelian Bay fire station. In almost every community and home over the affected area, dishes were broken, canned and bottled goods scattered and broken.

The quake was located in the Verdi fault and registerd 6.5 on the Richter Scale. This compares with 8.3 recorded in the disasterous San Francisco shock in 1906.

The Truckee-Donner Chamber of Comemrce invites al lorganizations in the community to utilize this space in listing and promoting coming scheduled events, without charge. Call Mrs. Pat Tonini or Chamber Manager N. F. Dolley to list coming events.

TRAVELERS

The approaching arrival of autumn inspires visits and moving to other areas for residents in this vicinity, including a change of address from Mrs. Lena Bollock to Monterey; the Tom Pendergasts to North Highlands, Edward Shannons in Sacramento, Arnold Miedemas at La Mesa; Mrs. Josephine Miller who spent the summer at Homewood has returned to San Francisco until next season; Mrs. Bertha Wolverton is enjoying El Dorado Hills.

Quicksand was a dangerous element in the arduous trek to the Pacific by the huge westward trail drives of cattle from 1850 to 1870.

CARD OF THANKS

On behalf of the Swimming Pool Committee, I take this opoprtunity to say thanks to Ida Clatterbuck for handling the publicity, to Betty Dearman for organizing the games, to Hazel Beck and Bob Zerbel for being the clowns, to the organizations and everyone handling games and booths, and to the residents of the Truckee-Donner area for their support in making our picnic-fair such a fun filled success.
